

Not. R. Dr. & Lamod

By the King.

A Proclamation purporting the tenor of Letters

Patents of Priviledge granted to Ioseph Iackson, of his own Invention, for the making, casting, guilding and vending of leaden Seals, usefull for the new Drapery.

Hereas Wwe by Our Letters Patents of Priviledge under Our Great Seal of England, bearing date the seventeenth day of December last past before the date hereof, for the considerations therein expressed, did give and grant unto Our welbelovèd Subject Ioseph Iackson, and his Assignes, the sole making, casting, guilding and vending of all sorts of Leaden Seales, usefull for the new Drapery within this Our Kingdome of England, and Dominion of Wales, for the terme of fourteen yeers, according to his new Invention. wwe do hereby declare Our Will and pleasure to be, and do straitly charge and command, prohibit and forbid all and every other person and persons whomsoever, of what estate, degree or condition soever, he, they or any of them are or shall be, that none of them do, or shall, during the terme aforesaid, directly or indirectly make, use, practise, or put in use the Invention aforesaid, or sell any of the said Seals, without the special licence and consent of the said Ioseph Iackson, or his Assignes first had and obtained. And we do also by these presents Will, require and command all Mayors, Sheriffes, Justices of Peace, Bailiffes, Constables, headboroughs, and all other Our Officers, Ministers, and Subjects, that they and every of them be from time to time, during the Terme aforesaid, aiding, helping, furthering, and assisting to him and his Assignes in all things in and about the accomplishment of Our pleasure herein declared: And that they nor any of them do in any wise hinder or interrupt him or them concerning the same, as they tender Our pleasure, and will avoid the contrary at their uttermost perils.

Given at Our Court at Whitehall, this seventeenth day of January, in the thirteenth year of our Reign.

God save the King.

Imprinted at London by ROBERT BARKER, Printer to the Kings most excellent Majestie: And by the Assignes of JOHN BILL. 1637.

17 January 1637/8

Stack 1761
STC 9101